Access Dickson shopping precinct and Canberra's CBD effortlessly through the light rail system from Watson.

With 124m² across two floors, relish separate living spaces, dual north/east entertaining zones, gas cooking, and a cleverly repurposed garage as a home office.

The expansive living area fits large furniture, with space for a second dining area. Flowing from the kitchen and family room, the private courtyard beckons. A separate formal dining space, powder room, office corner, and laundry complete the ground floor.
